Our Nashville Annual Reunion Will Be BIG!

The excitement is building quickly for our 36th annual reunion in Nashville, Tenn. More than 167 shipmates have already signed up for hotel rooms, making this Oct. 1-5 reunion one of the most popular we have had in several years.

Our event hotel is the Holiday Inn-Opryland/

Airport, 2200 Elm Hill Pk. Nashville, Tenn. 37214. Call 866-871-1171 for reservations. Mention "USS Coral Sea reunion" when making your reservation. While Sept. 2 was the deadline for receiving the discounted rate, you may still be able to negotiate for the $105.96 nightly rate on an individual basis. While the official tour sign-up deadline has passed, you may be able to twist some arms to join in the fun. You'll find a quick recap of our tour activities on page two of this issue of the newsletter.

President's Corner

Greetings Shipmates, The 2014 reunion is just around the corner. All plans are in place for a great time in Nashville and I do hope that many of you can make the trip to Music City USA for a lot of fun.

If you have not made your room reservations yet, act now as our allocation of rooms is going fast. All of the great tours planned for this year's annual reunion are recapped in this issue of Sea Breeze. Please remember that you need to make tour payments to the tour company, not to the Association treasurer.

Send your reunion registration form to Association Treasurer Clarence Neander. As of today (Aug. 18) 167 are signed up for hotel rooms! I'm very encouraged by this as there are also a lot of new names on the housing list. Party hearty we will! And be sure to check out the reunion POD in this issue.

This will be my last article to you as Association president. The last four years have been very busy as I've got a lot going on. I want to thank all members of the Coral Sea Association, first of all, for being members of this fine association. Many thanks to the officers of the association, especially the board members.

All of you have been a lot of help and I do hope that you all continue to work for the betterment of the association. A new many of the historic points in Nashville.

Stops will include Music Row (where many of the major music industry companies are located) and the Entertainment District, home to the Wildhorse Saloon, Printer's Alley, Hardrock Café and a variety of other local venues. You'll also take a ride through Centennial Park to see the world's only full-scale replica of the Parthenon, built during Tennessee's 1897 Centennial Exposition, and faithfully recreating the appearance of the original in Greece.

The Ryman Auditorium is known as the "mother church" of country music and original home of the Grand Ole Opry.

The Holiday Inn Opryland/Airport is convenient to all of the tour activities and Nashville-area explorations you plan on doing.

Vice President's Corner

Association Sailors,
The time is coming...the Nashville, Tennessee reunion is drawing near. John Ranson and his crew have been working hard to put this reunion together for the U.S.S. Coral Sea Association. As you know, Nashville is the Country Music Capital of the US; we have planned many tours around that and other things popular in the city. If you call the hotel, please be sure to mention that you are a member of the USS Coral Sea Association so you will get the group rate. Any other question that you may have, we ask that you contact board members. If they are uncertain of your concerns, they will put you in touch with someone who knows

General Jackson Lunch Cruise!

Friday, Oct. 4, 11:30 a.m.: We are "Navy" after all, so let's get on the water! Cruise the Cumberland River on the 300-foot long General Jackson, named after the original paddle-wheel steamer that began operating on these waters in 1817. Your time on this 1,200-passenger showboat includes reserved seating in the Victorian Theatre for lunch and a great live performance. Round-trip transportation to the dock is included.

Grand Ole Opry Show!

Friday, Oct. 3, 7:00 p.m.—9:30 p.m.: No trip to Nashville would be complete without experiencing the city's signature event, a live performance at the Grand Ole Opry. While the performers vary with each show, the quality of the country music performance is always Music City worthy! This tour includes your reserved seat tickets and round-trip transportation from the hotel.

more and will be able to address those concerns. I know I am using a phrase from the Marines but, "We just need a few good men." We are looking for a few men who are even better, who are willing to step up and become member of the board or fill an open position: president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, one executive

Chaplain's Corner

Dear Shipmates,
As I grow older, I find myself looking back over my life and thinking about how past experiences shaped my attitudes and helped to make me the person I am now. Like many of us, I hope to write some of this down some day . . . or at least as much as I can remember! I have a retired Navy chaplain friend who is in the process of writing his memoirs. Since we had quite a few shared experiences, he has asked me to read his drafts and make suggestions and comments. As I read his take on these events, I realize he remembers things I have forgotten. Often I have to smile at some of our adventures, especially our days in Chaplains School in Newport, Rhode Island, as "rookie" chaplains.
One of the great things we can do for our loved ones is to share as much of our military career as we can. And I might add, while we can! A whole generation or two has risen up who may not fully appreciate what serving your country is all about or how important it is. Your stories can help them recognize your own contribution to the greatness of our nation. Some of your memories may be too personal or painful to share with others, but there are many that you can tell.

And don't forget to also tell them how your faith shaped you and guided you through the rough places of life.
Thanks to each of you for your service to your country. And special thanks for having had the privilege of serving on the great ship Coral Sea!
Fair winds to all,

Michael

Treasurer's Corner

Greetings Shipmates,
Looks like a great reunion is about to happen in Nashville!
As of mid-August there are more than 167 members and guests registered to attend! That makes this year's annual reunion the most highly attended reunion since Ft. Mitchell, Kentucky in 2008. If you haven't done so already, you only have a short time to register for the Annual Reunion. The reunion room rate registration date of 2 Sept. has passed, but there may still be rooms available.
Raffle sales are way ahead of 2012 and 2013 and there's still time to return yours if you haven't already done so.
Looking forward to seeing "ya'll" in Nashville,

Clarence

Secretary's Corner

Hello Shipmates,
 Hope you and yours are well.
 Just a note to let all shipmates know I will be stepping down as USS Coral Sea Association secretary at our annual reunion in Nashville, Tenn. in October. I have served three terms and feel it is time to relinquish my duties to a shipmate who has more time to devote to this duty.
 I hope I have helped all who asked for assistance. I apologize for the first name issues we have experienced with our newsletter mailing list and have been working to resolve this problem to ensure accurate mailings. We have made progress overcoming this problem and you should see improvements in our future mailings.

 It was a pleasure to serve all of you and good luck to the next secretary of our Association.
 In service,

Don

USNSCC USS Coral Sea Division Meritorious Mast.

Our Association-sponsored Naval Sea Cadet Corp held the first Meritorious Mast of the year this past February. We had a number of outstanding young male and female cadets recognized during this ceremony.

Our presentations included the following:

- Eight “First Year Membership Ribbons”
- 10 Cadets promoted to E-2
- Two Cadets promoted to E-3
- Two Cadets promoted to 3rd Class Petty Officer
- One Cadet promoted to 2nd Class Petty Officer
- 15 Unit Commendation Ribbons awarded
- Two Citation Ribbons awarded

Officers recognized during our Meritorious Mast included:

- LTJG Peggy Betz, Div. XO and CO of the Training Ship (Leaguers), promoted to LT.

- Ensign Jose Salazar received the Regional “Officer of the Year Award” for outstanding performance of Duty
 - Former Cadet Ducut, now a US Army Reserve Private, was promoted to Midshipman USNSCC (When Ducut turned 18, he had to leave the Cadet Corp. He enlisted in the Army Reserve, and then took the exam to become a USNSCC Midshipman.)

And saving our most exciting news for last, 18-year-old Ca-

Cadet Sophia Luevano became the first Coral Sea Div. Sea Cadet to enter the Naval Academy this May, according to Association Liaison Chief Richard Satchell.

Pvt. 1st Class USAR Ducut receives his promotion to USNSCC Midshipman from Div. CO, LT Brad Webster.

det Sophia Luevano, was accepted to the US Naval Academy. She reported in May for her indoctrination classes, becoming our first Cadet to be accepted by a Military Academy. We have had two other Cadets finish College ROTC programs. They now are on Active duty, Navy and Army.

Vice President's Corner...

board member, and one member for the scholarship board. I am serving as chairman of the nomination and would appreciate being informed of any nominees. You can reach me at: 941-223-1783 (cell phone) or 941-485-4360 (home phone).

Additionally, we will vote on the reunion site for 2015. If we have multiple choices presented, the one with the most votes is where we will be headed. So pack your bags! Look forward to seeing you and your families in Nashville.

Safe travels,

Bill
